The Heart of Government

Premier
& Cabinet

NSW PREMIER AND CABINET

Our single, unified purpose is to make NSW a great place to live, work and visit by enhancing the lives of the eight million people who call our state home.

We're accountable for the leadership of more than 400,000 people in the NSW Public Service with a focus on:

- driving economic development
- investment attraction
- infrastructure delivery
- arts and creativity
- promoting Indigenous culture
- integrity of government
- long-term resilience
- social and environmental outcomes.

We partner across government and with the private sector to grow our state's economy.
Collectively, we are focused on delivery.

ABORIGINAL AFFAIRS

Lil Gordon
Head of Aboriginal Affairs

Aboriginal Affairs empowers Aboriginal people by positioning Indigenous economic development, jobs, cultural heritage, languages and history at the centre of the NSW Government.

GREATER SYDNEY COMMISSION

Elizabeth Mildwater
Chief Executive Officer

The Greater Sydney Commission leads strategic planning to make Greater Sydney a more productive, livable and sustainable city. It undertakes city-shaping research and coordinates the accelerated delivery of world-leading innovation precincts to attract top-tier industries.

INFRASTRUCTURE NSW

Simon Draper
Chief Executive Officer

Infrastructure NSW's vision is to achieve community wellbeing through great infrastructure. It helps drive the state's $107 billion infrastructure pipeline through the key functions of independent expert advice, priority project delivery, infrastructure assurance and place management.

INVESTMENT NSW

Amy Brown
Chief Executive Officer

Investment NSW attracts business, events, investment, international students and global talent to NSW, by consolidating government economic development activities together in one place. It acts as a concierge to partner with the NSW Government and deliver transformative economic and employment opportunities for the people of NSW.

WESTERN PARKLAND CITY AUTHORITY

Dr Sarah Hill
Chief Executive Officer

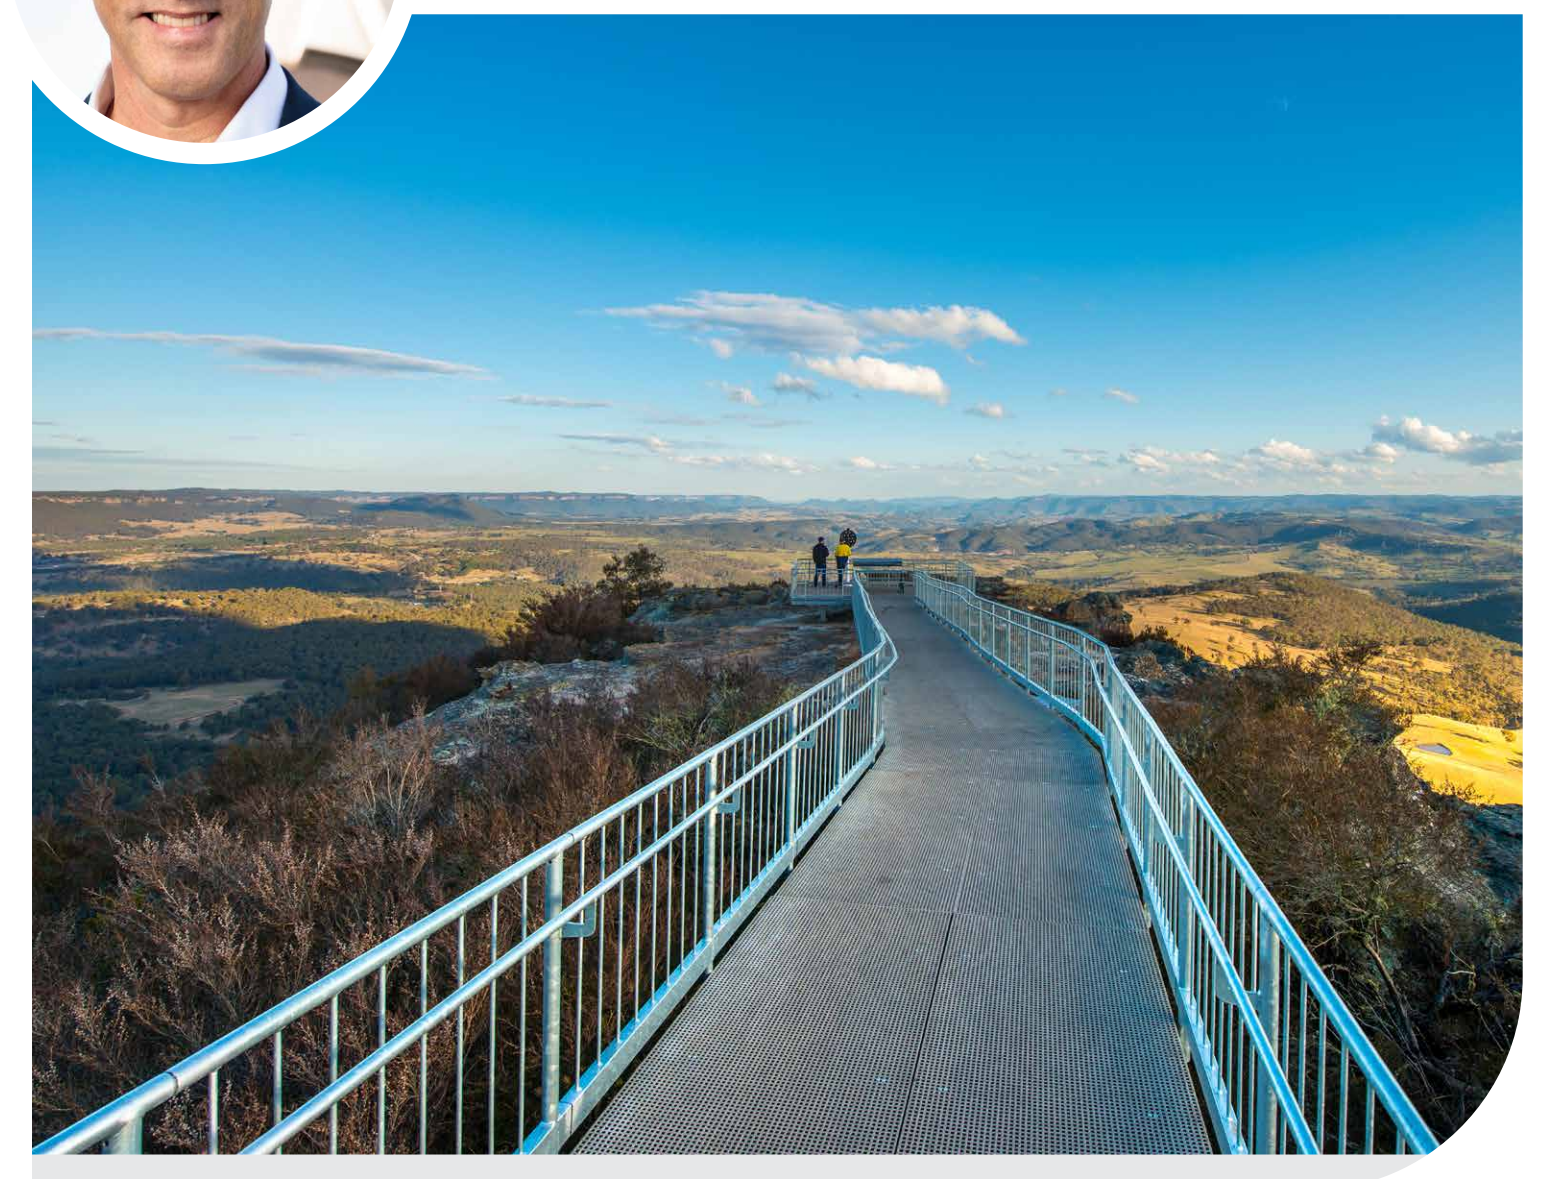

The Western Parkland City Authority is a coordinating authority with a holistic view of planning, development and economic activation over the Western Sydney International Airport and the $20 billion trilateral government investment already earmarked.

DESTINATION NSW

Steve Cox
Chief Executive Officer

Destination NSW is responsible for growing the state's visitor economy by driving tourism and securing major events that deliver economic and social benefits for the people of NSW.

RESILIENCE NSW

Shane Fitzsimmons AFSM
Commissioner

.....

Resilience NSW is the lead disaster management agency responsible for recovery and preparedness. It coordinates emergency management policy and service delivery with a focus on social, economic, infrastructure and natural environment outcomes.

CREATE INFRASTRUCTURE

Annette Pitman
Head of Create Infrastructure

Create Infrastructure provides a coordinated infrastructure planning, policy and delivery strategy for the cultural sector.

CREATE NSW

Chris Keely
Executive Director

Create NSW brings together arts, screen and culture in NSW, investing in their future through infrastructure and funding programs to embed arts in the everyday. It also delivers new, innovative and exciting arts and cultural experiences for the people of NSW.

SYDNEY OPERA HOUSE TRUST

Louise Herron AM
Chief Executive Officer

The Sydney Opera House is Australia's top tourist destination and busiest performing arts centre. Its mission is to preserve the Opera House for future generations of artists, audiences and visitors, while inspiring the community.

HERITAGE NSW

Pauline McKenzie
Executive Director

Heritage NSW works closely with the community to know, value and care for heritage. It supports heritage owners, works with Aboriginal communities on Aboriginal Places declarations and manages the State Heritage Register.

AUSTRALIAN MUSEUM

Kim McKay AO
Chief Executive Officer

The Australian Museum is dedicated to scientific research, education and cultural outreach. Through exhibitions and other programs, it inspires and informs generations of visitors about the richness of life and culture, in Australia and the Pacific.

Sydney Living Museums looks after 12 historic houses, gardens and museums in NSW, on behalf of the people of NSW. The State Archives and Records Authority of New South Wales (SARA) is responsible for the development, preservation and access of the state's archives and government records.

MUSEUM OF APPLIED ARTS AND SCIENCES TRUST

Lisa Havilah
Chief Executive

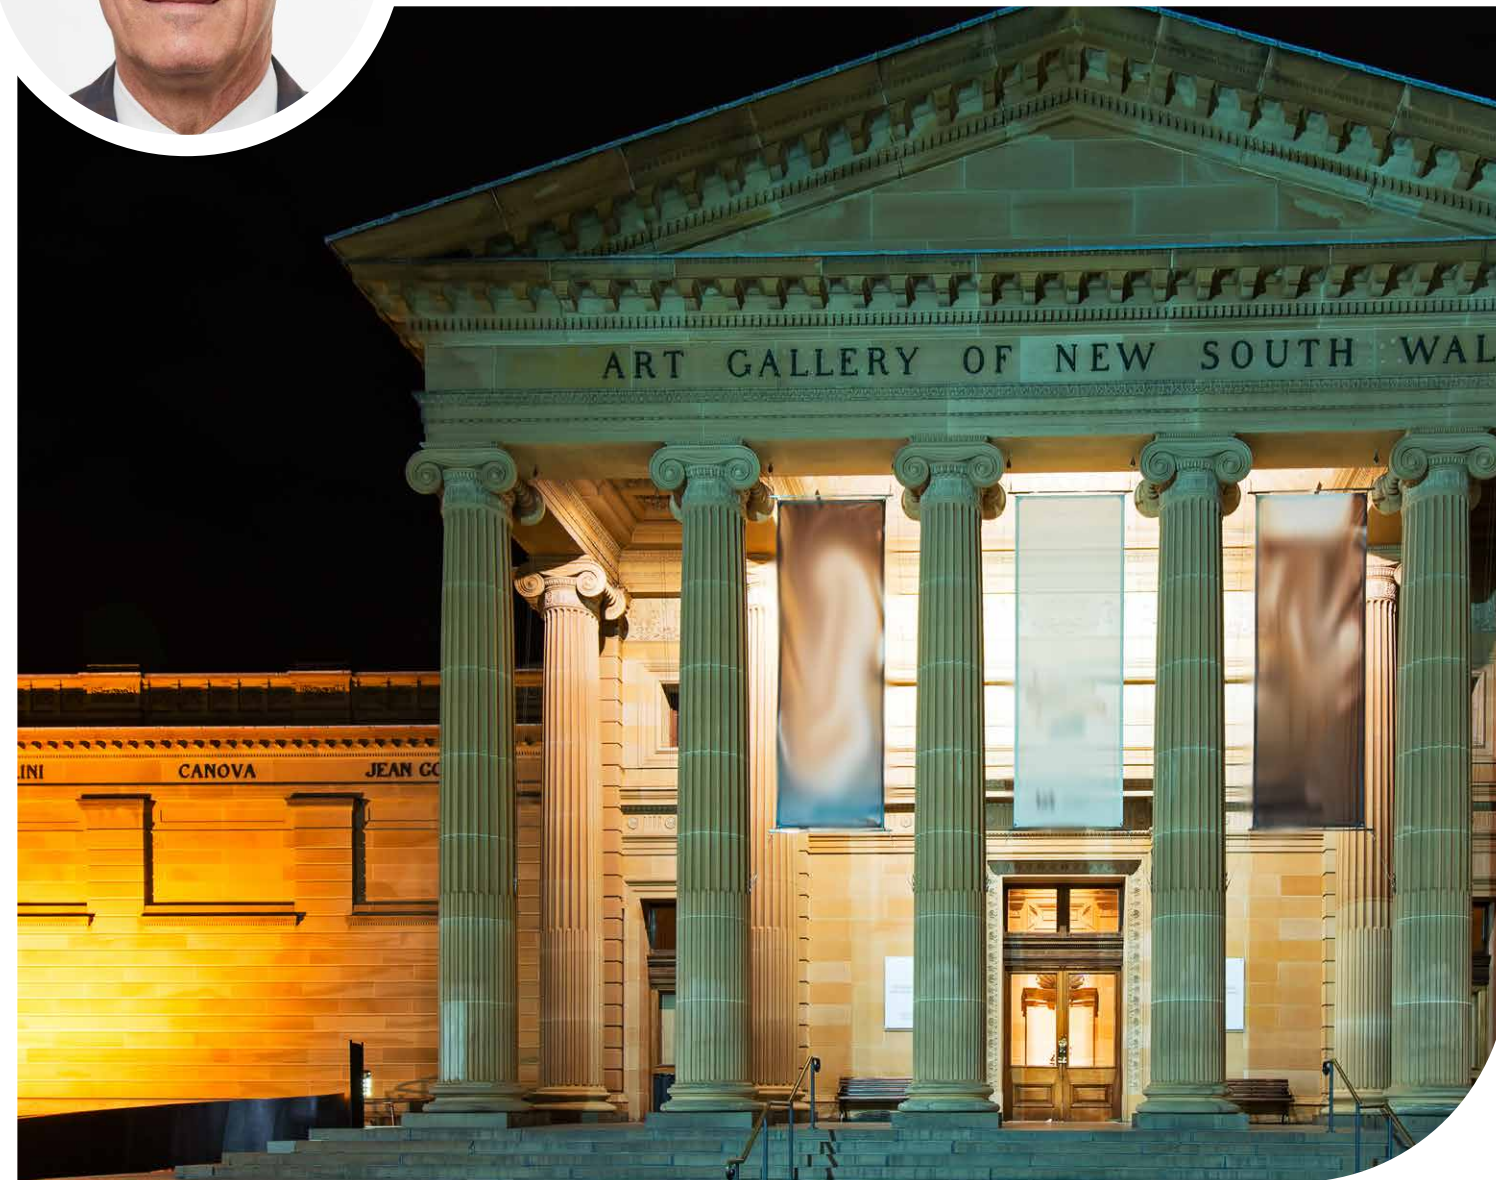

The Museum of Applied Arts and Sciences (MAAS) includes the Powerhouse Museum, Sydney Observatory and Museums Discovery Centre. The MAAS experience sits at the intersection of the arts, design, science and technology, while reflecting the changing shape and future of Sydney.

ART GALLERY OF NSW

Dr Michael Brand
Director

.....

The Art Gallery of NSW serves as a centre of excellence for collecting, preserving, documenting, interpreting and displaying both Australian and international art. The Art Gallery is a forum for scholarship, art education and the exchange of ideas, presented from a local viewpoint.

STATE LIBRARY OF NSW

Dr John Vallance
State Librarian

.....

The State Library of NSW collects and preserves materials and evidence relating to our place in the world and makes them accessible to everyone in NSW and beyond. The Library supports and encourages research, debate, conversation, inspiration, learning and enjoyment.
